DETAILED ACTION

1. Amendment filed on 2/16/05 has been received.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-15, 17, 20-24, and 37-48 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davis (U. S. Patent no. 3,444,963).

See figures arcuate leading edge 14, wheel supporting surface 12, sidewalls 10, rear wall 11, handle 18, support leg 16, gusset 17, rim unnumbered with barbs 21

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3683

5. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davis in view of Richardson (U. S. Patent no. 2,521,539).

Davis is relied upon as above. Davis does not disclose the use of wheel-engaging ribs.

Richardson teaches the use of wheel-engaging ribs (see figure 3 ribs 4). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use wheel-engaging ribs as taught by Richardson in the chock of Davis in order to increase traction which helps the chock to hold the wheel in place.

6. Claims 18 and 19 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Davis.

Davis is relied upon as above. Davis does not disclose tapering the support leg towards the ground engaging surface. Davis discloses tapering the support leg towards the wheel engaging surface. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to taper the support leg towards the ground engaging surface as such is merely a design choice.

Davis does not disclose having ridges on the ground engaging surface. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have ridges on the ground engaging surface as such is a well known feature to increase the grip the chock has on the ground.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-15, 17-24, and 37-48 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

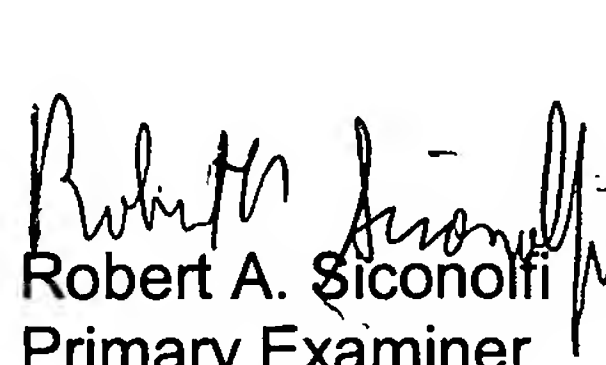

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
